9.

Received a call from Carl Marcy, former Staff Director of Senate Foreign Relations Committee who is now representing various foreign policy groups. He said the Center for Study of Democratic Institutes, which he described as a reputable organization, and the Fund for Peace (before whom the Director spoke last year) would be sponsoring Pacem in Terris IV on the West Coast in December. He said they are trying to get President Ford and Mr. Brezhnev to speak via satellite and would also like to get Mr. Colby and Senator Frank Church to participate on a panel. I told him someone had been in touch with Angus Thuermer on this subject and I would talk with Thuermer and also with the Director. Marcy said Fred Warner Neal and Harry Ashmore, who are putting this together would like an opportunity to speak with the Director on his designated representative about the possibility of his appearance.

13.. Picked up from J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, a paper on Cuban communist influence in Puerto Rico written by an employee of the Puerto Rican Department of Justice who has appeared as a witness before the Subcommittee. He asked that the Agency review the paper written in Spanish and advise him as to whether we consider it worthwhile to be published in Spanish as an exhibit to the hearings. He also asked if the Agency would consider translating the paper to English, if we have a strong interest in it. [redacted] DDO, was advised of this and given the package.
